

LIVRE de CAVE

"This selection of wines is a book of stories written together with the winegrowers, many of who have been with house Pic for several generations.

The river that waters our restaurant in Valence is the Rhône. With trade routes flowing through it for centuries, Anne-Sophie Pic's home has always been at the crossroads of cultures. Rhône has taught her to be open to things less familiar and gave a daily appetite for discovery that is at the heart of her cuisine.

That's why our beverage program also has no limits or borders: we travel, we taste, and we bring to your table the wines that touched us. During visits to the vineyards and tastings with producers we focus on the story and intention behind each product, a story that we pass on to you. This concerns wines, but also all the other beverages: teas, coffees, sake, spirits and many other curiosities which we of course invite you to discover with us."

ASIAN WINE REVOLUTION

From Emma Gao's electric wines from biodynamically farmed vineyards at the edge of the Gobi desert and Ian Dai's experiments with natural winemaking all over China to Takahiko Soga's dream "to create a Pinot Noir with a Japanese soul", Asian wine culture is undergoing a massive paradigm shift before our eyes, and we invite you to taste it.

SAKE MEETS TERROIR

Similar to the natural wine revolution that has transformed many wine producing regions, the Japanese sake industry is undergoing a profound shift in values as breweries are being passed on to sons and daughters. From growing and polishing their own organic rice and embracing heirloom rice varieties to resurrecting ancient brewing techniques, many in this new generation are betting their livelihoods on artisanship and terroir, and we are proud to serve their incredible sake.

SPARKLING

Masumi 真澄 "Origami" Junmai Ginjo – Nagano, Japan 750

MIYOSHINO JOZO 美吉野醸造 花巴 – Nara

Fourth-generation owner Hashimoto Teruaki became the master brewer at Miyoshino Jōzō in 2008, and has since turned it into one of Japan's most innovative and creative breweries. Hashimoto sees sake brewing as part of the local agriculture, working closely with nearby farmers and adjusting his sake to the rice they grow, not the other way around, as it is in most breweries.

Hanatomoe "Jun Dai Dai" – a rare daiginjo produced in traditional Yamahai method 800

Hanatomoe "Mizumoto" – an ancient sake brewing technique brings vibrant acidity to this junmai 700

Hanatomoe "Koshu" – brewed in 1988, this is a rare example of aged sake with incredible stories to tell – 375 ml 1,200

AKISHIKA SHUZO 秋鹿酒造 秋鹿 – Osaka

When Hiroaki Oku took over his 123-year old family brewery fifteen years ago, he set a new ambitious production target – minus 75 percent. Each year he gets closer to that goal, and Akishika sake get rarer. Oku-san's reasoning is simple: he wants to use only the very best rice, and to be at the helm of every step of the process. He's aiming for what he calls "ikkan-zukuri", meaning production from seedling to sake.

Nyukon Itteki – the rice for this junmai daiginjo comes from rice paddies grown organically by Oku-san himself 1,100

Ikkkan Zukuri – a wonderfully complex junmai daiginjo brewed in 2007 and allowed to develop since 2,400

TERADA HONKE 寺田本家 – Chiba

"Terada Honke is a home base for brewers and microorganisms working energetically in tandem with each other", – Masaru Terada's almost spiritual attention to honoring the invisible forces that help him produce some of Japan's most unique sake sets him apart from his peers.

Gonin Musume "Shizen no Manma" – junmai kimoto brewed using heirloom organically grown Kameno-o rice 800

Shin – a very special junmai kimoto brewed in celebration of Terada Honke's 350 years of artisanship 1,400

Kioke Jikomi – a rare junmai brewed in large wooden vats abandoned by most producers in the face of modernity 900
